Alternative use of Polish post-mining facilities – threats and opportunities

Anna Wiktor¹

¹ Department of Economics and Management in Industry, Faculty of Mining and Geoengineering, University of Science and Technology AGH, Kraków

ABSTRACT:

The article treats about Polish post-mining facilities, which come into being in the result of resource depletion or the political changes of 90’. It treats about the facilities alternative ways of use. In the article are shown the threats and opportunities of each way, which estimation should be done before investment.